

BCG Attorney Search Releases the 2009 BCG Attorney Search Guide to America's Top 50 Law Schools

March 4, 2009

The 2009 BCG Attorney Search Guide to America's Top 50 Law Schools is a comprehensive overview of America's top 50 law schools as identified by the 2009 U.S. News & World Report law school rankings.

Pasadena, CA – BCG Attorney Search, the largest attorney recruiting firm in the United States, has released The 2009 BCG Attorney Search Guide to America's Top 50 Law Schools, a resourceful guide that provides law firms with objective information about the top 50 law schools.

"The Guide is extremely helpful for recruiters, recruiting coordinators, hiring partners, and prospective law students in deciphering the grading and ranking systems of various schools. It attempts to demystify these classifications and to provide the reader with a greater understanding of how to interpret resumes, transcripts, and cover letters," says A. Harrison Barnes, CEO of BCG Attorney Search.

The 2009 BCG Attorney Search Guide to America's Top 50 Law Schools provides:

- A comparative reference to the top US law schools.
- An explanation of the grading systems used by America's top 50 law schools.
- Information about each school's publications.
- Information to help guide potential employers in making informed hiring choices.
- Information regarding each school's student-faculty ratio, class size, academic honors and awards, moot court and clinical programs, entering-class GPA and LSAT scores, and post-law school employment statistics, as well as a few facts that convey the overall atmosphere at each school.

"As we go into an incredible economic storm and watch companies and law firms around us that once seemed invincible collapse, we are confident that what is signified by in the Guide is something that will enable us to continue growing and provide for our future," adds Barnes.

This year's Guide has been updated to incorporate the most current and comprehensive information about the most important aspects of law school admissions data; grade and class ranking systems; and a summary of each school's law review, journal, and clinical program offerings. The Guide's data has been gathered from the website of each law school, the ABA-LSAC Official Guide to ABA-Approved Law Schools, and the NALP Directory.
