

BCG Attorney Search Recruiters are Passionate about Legal Jobs

November 2, 2009

This press release informs the readers that BCG Attorney Search is the best legal jobs search website where the recruiters are quite ardent about hiring capable legal professionals.

BCG Attorney Search is a legal jobs search portal that is different from other existing legal jobs websites in the market. This website constantly strives to help its members get placement in reputable organizations and legal firms and advance in their legal jobs. Unlike other recruiting firms, the team at this job portal gathers information about the current market scenario and legal job openings that may or may not be advertised. This benefits the candidates a great deal because legal jobs not advertised anywhere else are listed here and hence improve their chances of getting a job sooner. This is because BCG is a paid site and hence only serious job seekers apply here. The website has millions of members who have put their trust in the legal recruiting firm. The recruiters at BCG Attorney Search are committed and put the members' interest first.

BCG Attorney Search started as a small recruiting firm and now plays a significant role in legal recruitments in the American legal industry. The core focus of the website is getting attorneys jobs. A. Harrison Barnes the CEO says, "At BCG Attorney Search, we believe that working with a good recruiter is the best way to get a job. Recruiters in our team know everything that a law firm seeks in a candidate. We know how to present you to them in the best way so that you get the job right away. We also provide coaching to legal job search candidates and give them valuable interview tips. We also strongly believe that candidates who are highly qualified are doing great injustice to themselves by not associating with well-known legal recruiters."

BCG Attorney Search places candidates in only those firms that have a permanent existence. This is because we believe that working for permanent law firms helps in career advancement significantly. Even in house positions provide opportunity for the candidates to enter into the law firms. Since the sole aim of this website is to help candidates pursue their dream career, this legal jobs site opens up many more avenues in front of them.

BCG Search also provides assistance to the candidates in case they want to stick to their current law job, relocate elsewhere, or are thinking of shifting their practice area. Members can benefit from both professional and personal assistance in the matters concerning recruitment and placements. Get customized job search solutions depending up on your educational qualifications, personal qualities, job experience and professional goals.

ATTORNEY SEARCH

The qualified career consultants at BCG Attorney Search provide all the necessary guidance and assistance for the interviews of the candidates. The job portal has plenty law firm listings, more than any other recruiting firms in the US. The team at BCG goes to such astonishing lengths to maintain their job listings, they are confident that if there is any law firm opening that is ideal for any of the candidates, the site will be the first one to know about it. BCG Attorney Search is definitely the smartest choice and assists members at every stage of their legal career. For more information on this legal jobs website, please visit www.bcgsearch.com.