

BCG Search is the Standard in Attorney Search and Placement

November 7, 2009

This press release informs the readers that BCGSearch.com is an effective legal job search portal that plays a significant role in attorney search and placement. They are focused on placing attorneys in some of the best law firms and have admirable legal careers.

BCG Search is one of the most well-known attorney job search and placement website that is owned by A. Harrison Barnes. This law job portal is in the recruiting industry for many years and the site has gradually reached tremendous heights of success with thousands of members. BCGSearch.com focuses on helping its clients get the best attorney job and service.

This is one legal job portal whose first priority is customers' needs and not profits and this is why the legal job site is effective in producing 100% placement results. BCG Search has been successful in maintaining its record of 100% client satisfaction. BCG Search makes more law placements than any other job board in the legal recruiting industry, no wonder it is the standard in attorney search and placement. According to the statistics, BCG Search is responsible for the placement of more than 10,000 attorneys and law students every year.

BCG Search has a team of researchers, writers, recruiters and production staff who have graduated from top universities and law schools in the country. The kind of professionalism and dedication they offer is appreciated by all well-known law firms as well as attorneys. The level of commitment cannot be compared with any other job board in the legal placement business.

The team of BCG Search ensures that they are completely aware of your legal job needs and work accordingly. The candidate is properly interviewed to know every little detail to help them get employed. The information you share with them is secured and they ensure that when looking for a job for you, your career goals are met.

A professional resume is made for BCG members along with legal job cover letters. These are then sent to the legal organizations where the members are interested to work. Professional resume and letter ensure that you get noticed at once by legal firms one applies to. As a result, you will have a number of interviews in hand allowing you to get a law job of your choice. Interview tips and other job search guidance will be provided by job search specialists at BCG Search that help take the vital decision of choosing the right legal firm.

ATTORNEY SEARCH

BCG Search is not a free service like any other job portals as it charges a nominal fee for their services. This ensures that only those law graduates and professionals who are serious about getting a good job are part of the site. BCG Search is not any ordinary attorney placement cell. It has proved its potential time and again with so many happy members who found a job within days of being part of this website.
